

Trade fairs and partnering conferences 2024

At international trade fairs, partnering conferences and delegation trips, LISAvienna connects companies and research institutions from Vienna with development partners, leading customers and investors, and promotes Vienna as a business location. Here is an overview of the events we plan to attend in the next few months and where we can support you. The LISAvienna team looks forward to receiving your questions! Benefit from our many years of experience with international events to make your trade fair appearance a success and subscribe to LISAvienna's free newsletter to stay in the loop.

LISAvienna is committed to ensuring that Austria-based companies and organizations can make joint appearances at international events. As one of LISA – Life Science Austria's core partners, we organize joint stands on behalf of the umbrella brand at some of these events.
